2) The G.O. revising the classification of Munsiffs requires that an officer appointed to be Munsiff should be on probation for two years. From what date the period of probation should be counted in regard to Mr. Krishnaswami - whether from the date of the occurrence of a permanent vacancy or from the date of ~~the~~ appointment as acting Munsiff - will be a matter for consideration

(1) The reference relates to the confirmation of Mr. A. M. Krishnaswami as Munsiff. There are 19 appointments in the grade of Munsiff. Under the G.O. of 25.8.1911, Mr. Krishnaswami was appointed a Probationer, and had to pass a probationary period of 3 years. At the end of 3 years he ought to be appointed permanently as a Munsiff. He joined Service on 28-8-1911, and as the is in the usual course he has to be confirmed on 28.8.1914, according to vacancy.

(2) There is a permanent vacancy in the Munsiff's grade from 10.2.1914, when Mr. B. Basavaradhya was permanently transferred to the Revenue Department, and there is another from 27.9.1914 when Mr. N. Gopala Iyengar was permanently appointed as Sub Judge.

(3) The question is whether Mr. Krishnaswami has to be confirmed from 28.8.1914 or from 28.9.1914. In the place vacancy created by the transfer of Mr. Basavaradhya, Mr. Raghavachar was appointed as a Munsiff. But it does not mean that that place is particularly earmarked, when there are vacancies in which he could be confirmed after he completes his probationary period as Mr. Krishnaswami has earned his confirmation, there seems to be no objection to confirm him from 28.8.1914.

The conditions have been fully satisfied since the date of his entry into service, viz., 28th August 1911.
